Universitets- och högskolerådet

2019-05-09

Council for Regulated Professions with Mr. Bernhard Zaglmayer, European Commission

Stockholm, May 9, 2019

Universitets- och högskolerådet

Meeting May 9, 2019

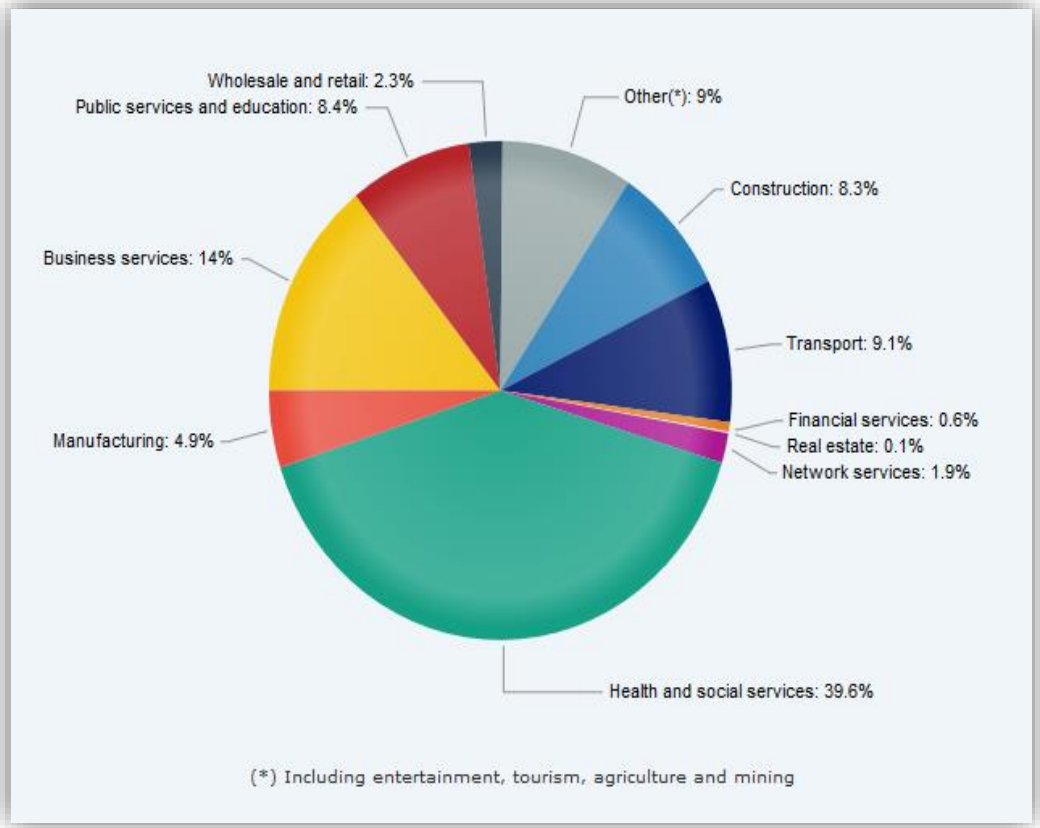

- European Commission and the PQ directive
- Legal obligations under the PQ directive and what happens when the Member States do not fullfill them
- Database of Regulated Professions (REGPROF) and why it is important to keep it updated
- Directive on a proportionality test before adoption of new regulation of professions and why it is relevant for your agency

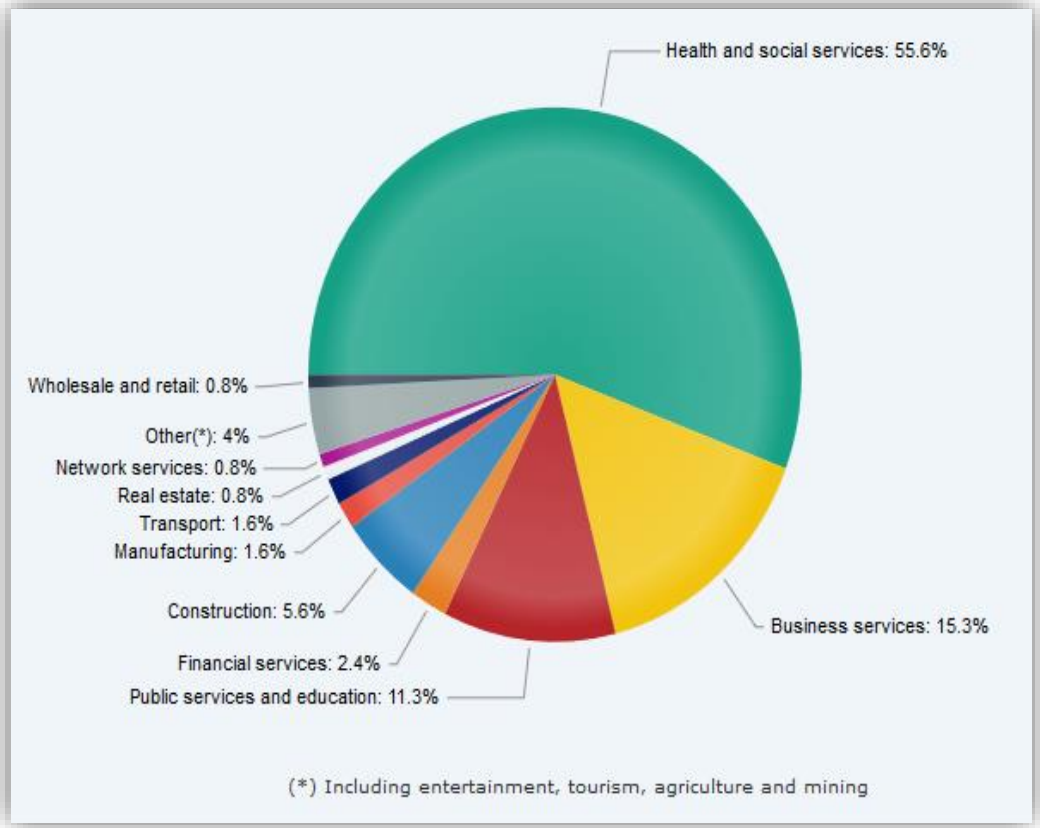

Universitets- och högskolerådet

Regulated professions, distribution by economic sector

All countries

Sweden

Universitets- och högskolerådet

Meeting May 9, 2019 (2)

- Brexit, any other business, Q&A
- Lunchbreak (12-13)
- Compensation Measures, Summary of the Previous Discussions
- Recognition of Professional Qualifications & Compensation Measures
- Short summary of the Day and Work Ahead

Regulated Professions Database

Bernhard Zaglmayer

European Commission

Stockholm, Sweden

9 May 2019

Have you ever thought about why sunrises are better than sunsets?

How to test proportionality of regulation before it is too late

Bernhard Zaglmayer, Stockholm, 9.5.2019

Universitets- och högskolerådet

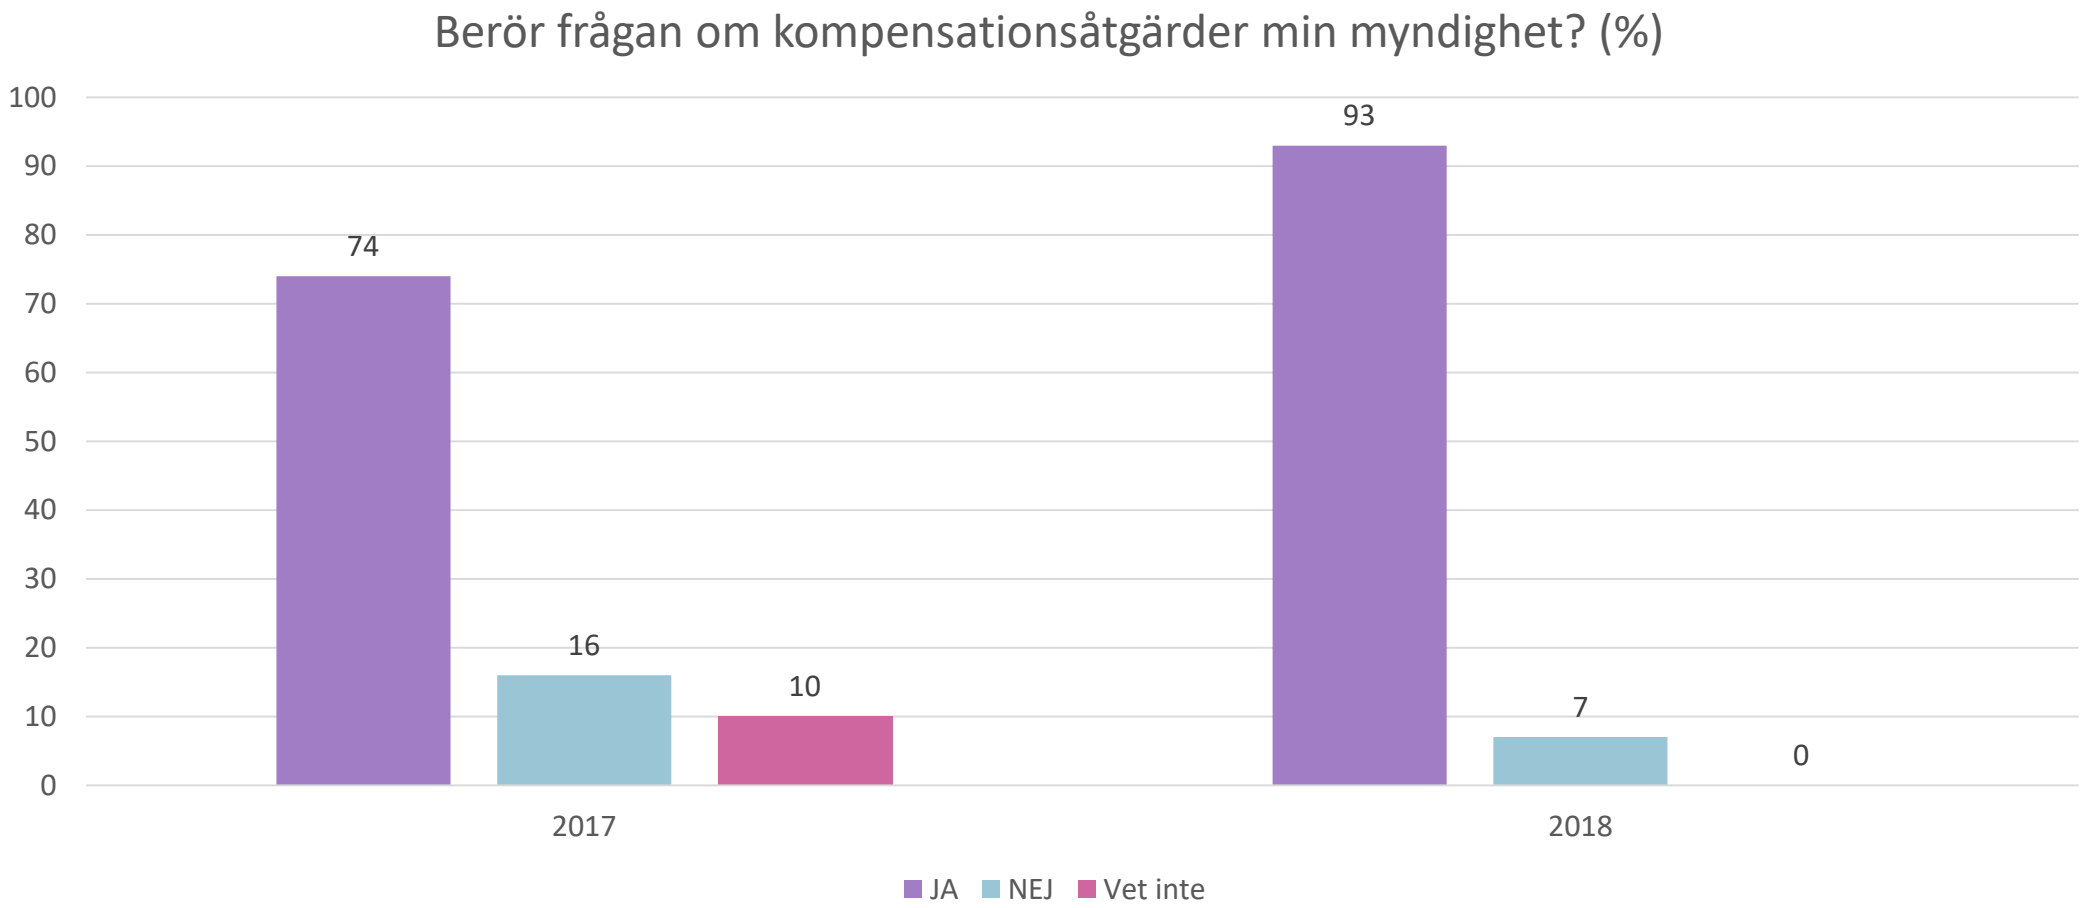

Welcome back!

- Compensation Measures, Summary of the Previous Discussions
- Recognition of Professional Qualifications & Compensation Measures
- Beehive Discussions & Reflections

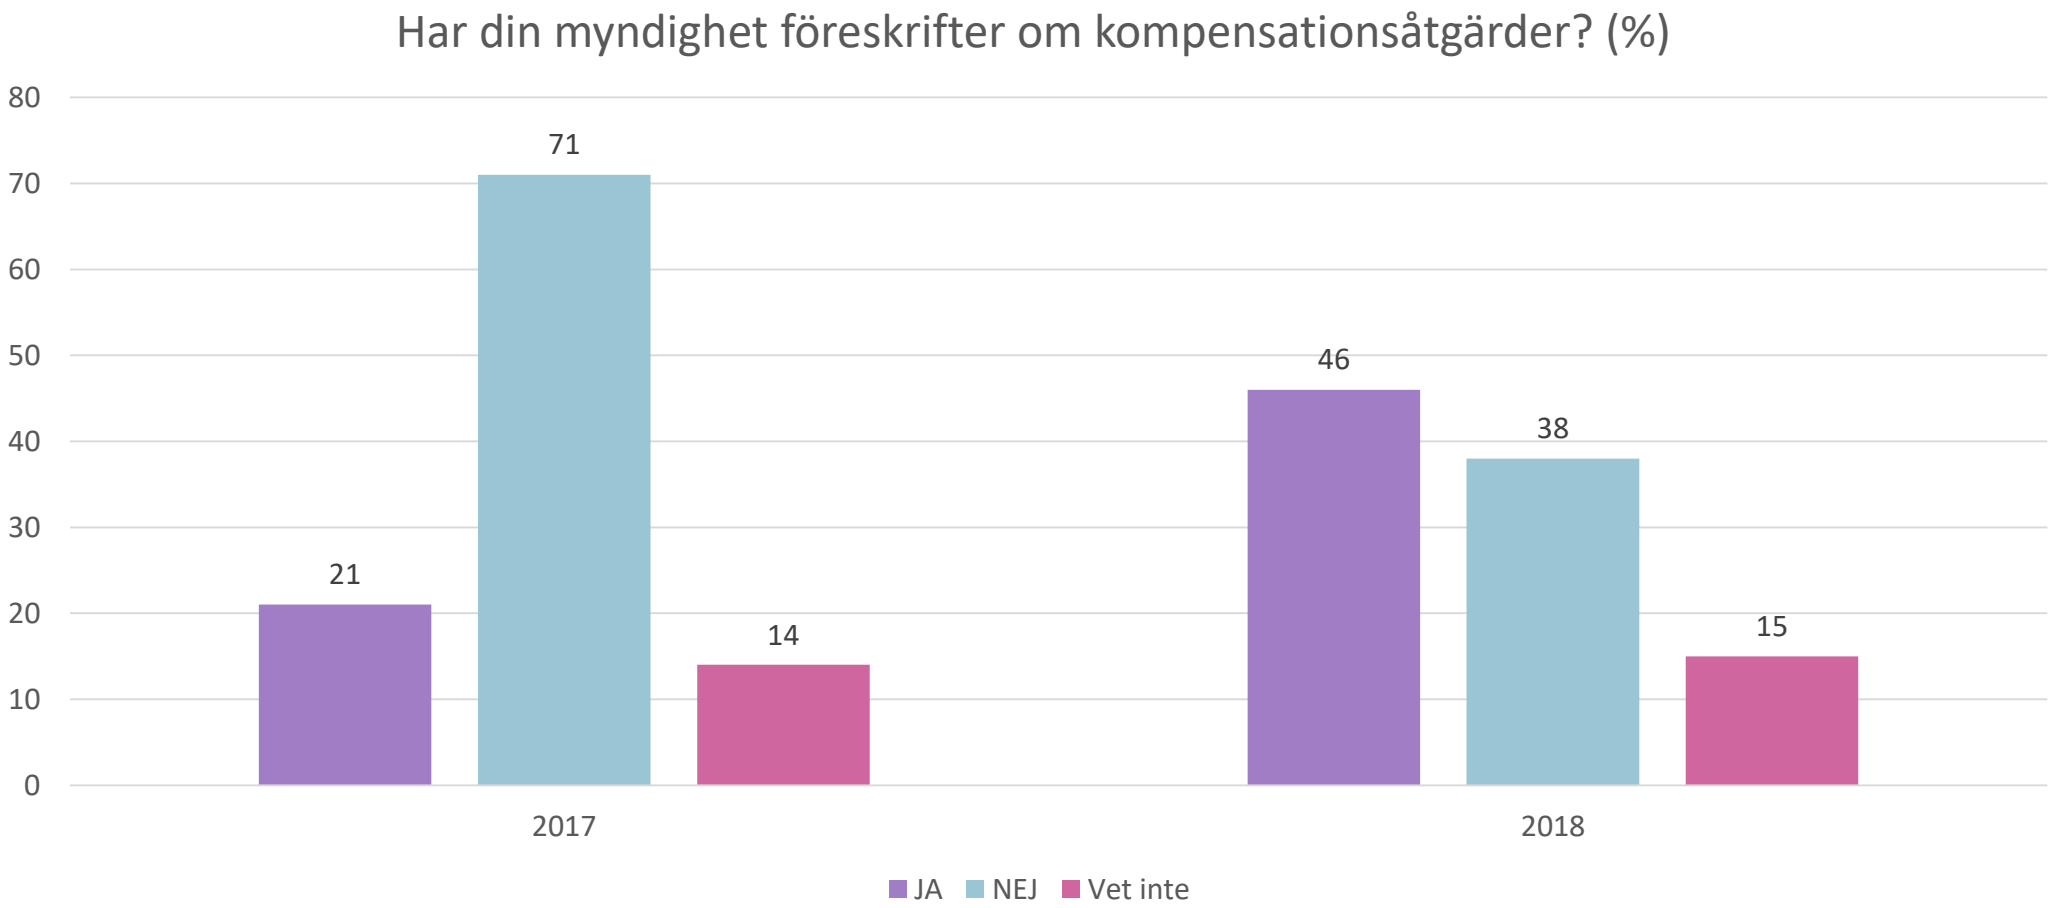

Universitets- och högskolerådet

Compensation Measures, Previous Discussions

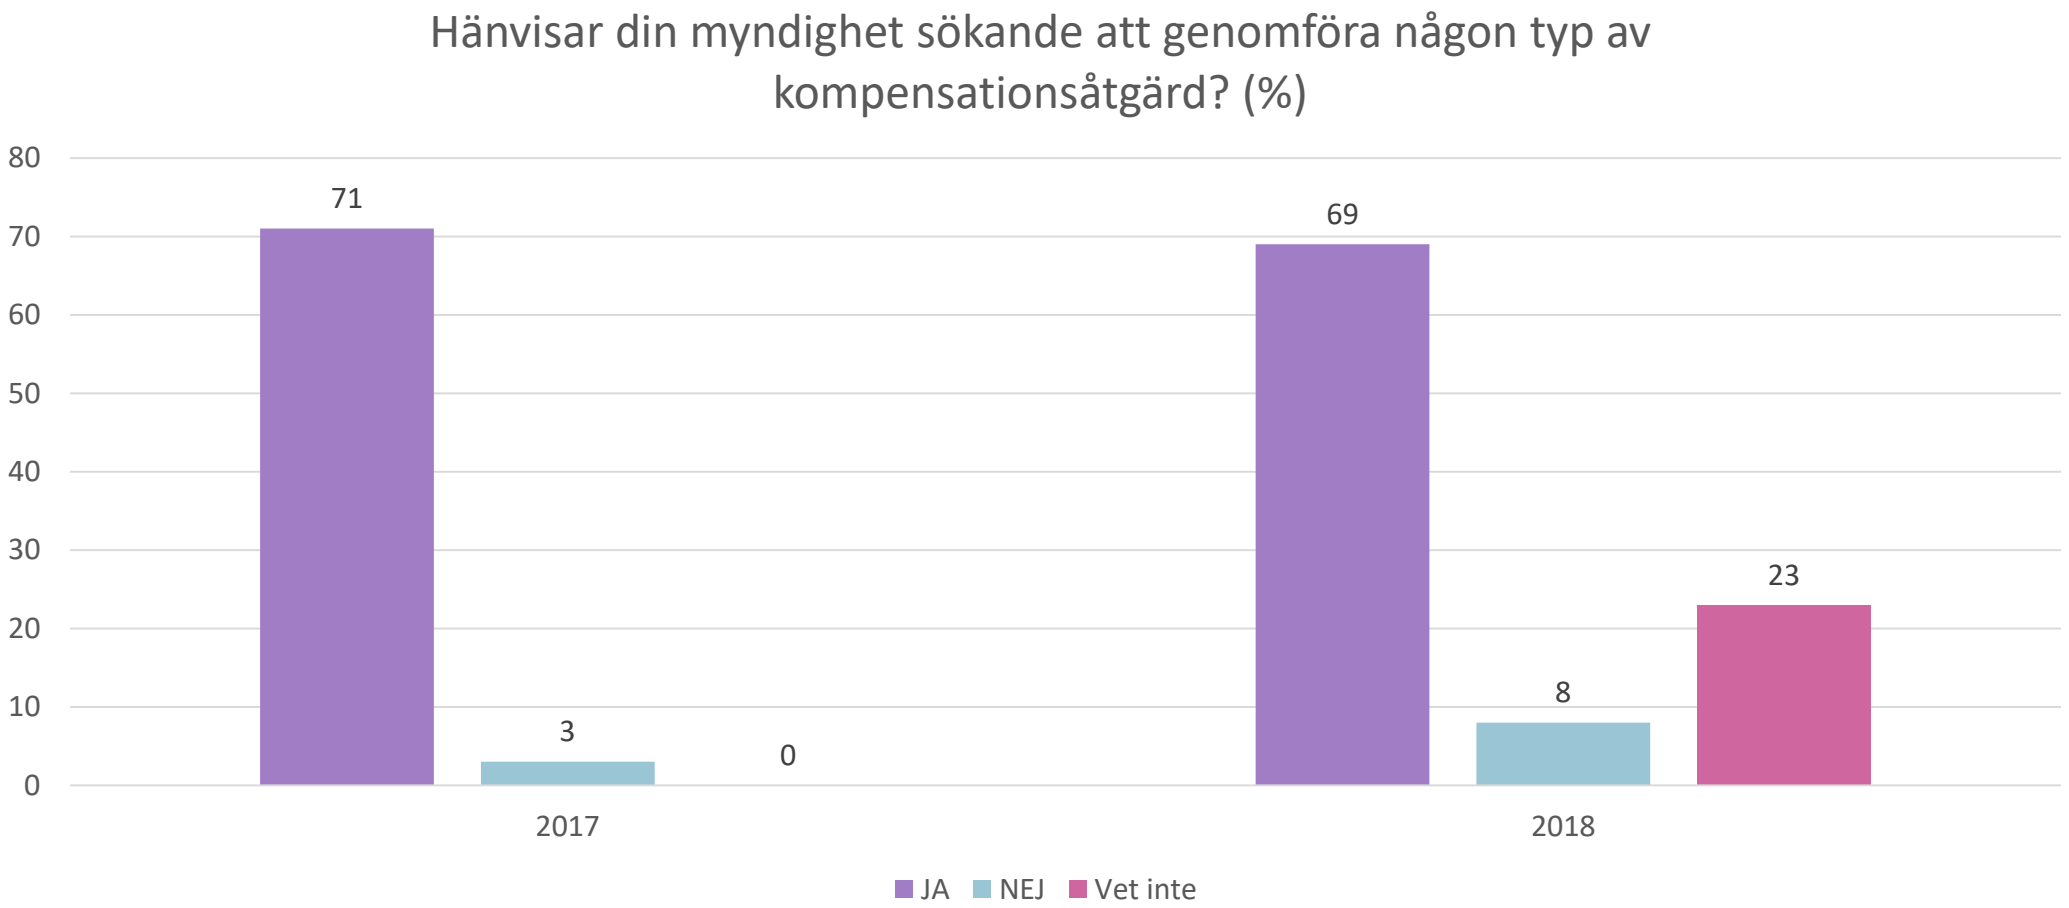

Universitets- och högskolerådet

Compensation Measures, Previous Discussions (2)

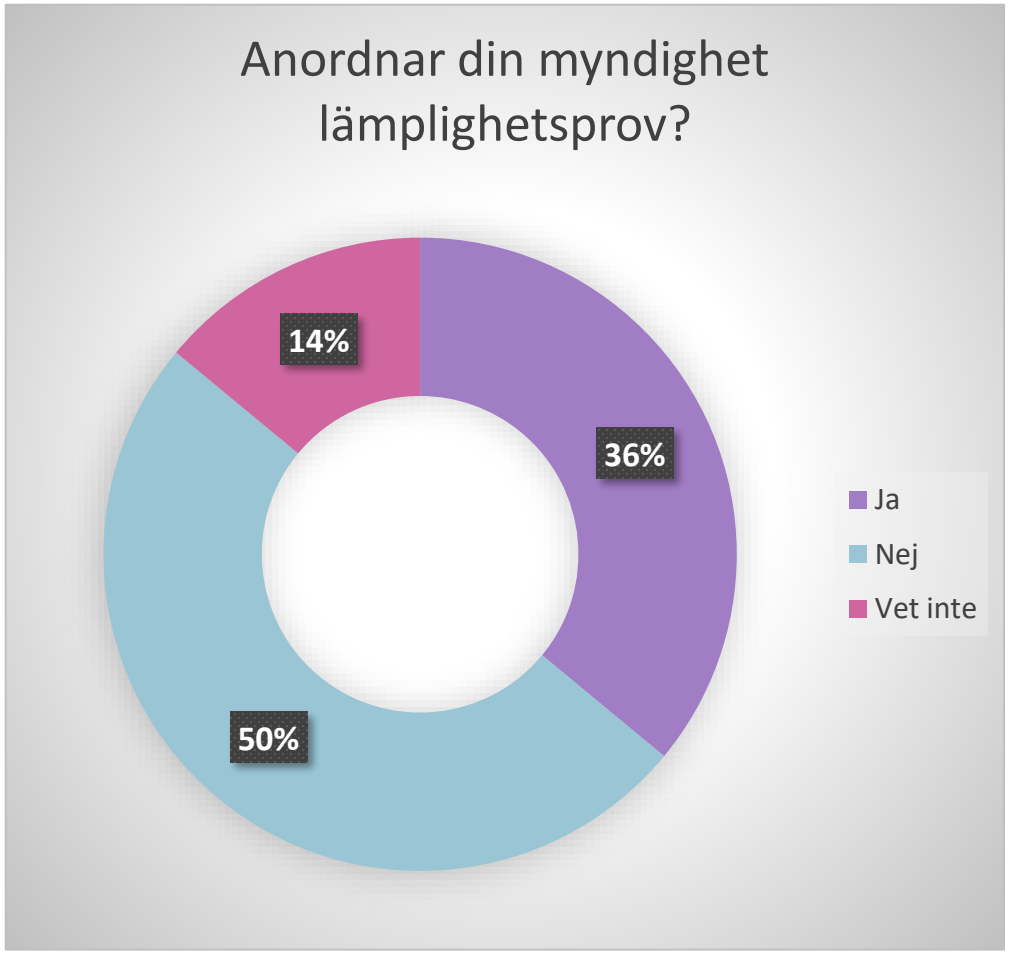

Universitets- och högskolerådet

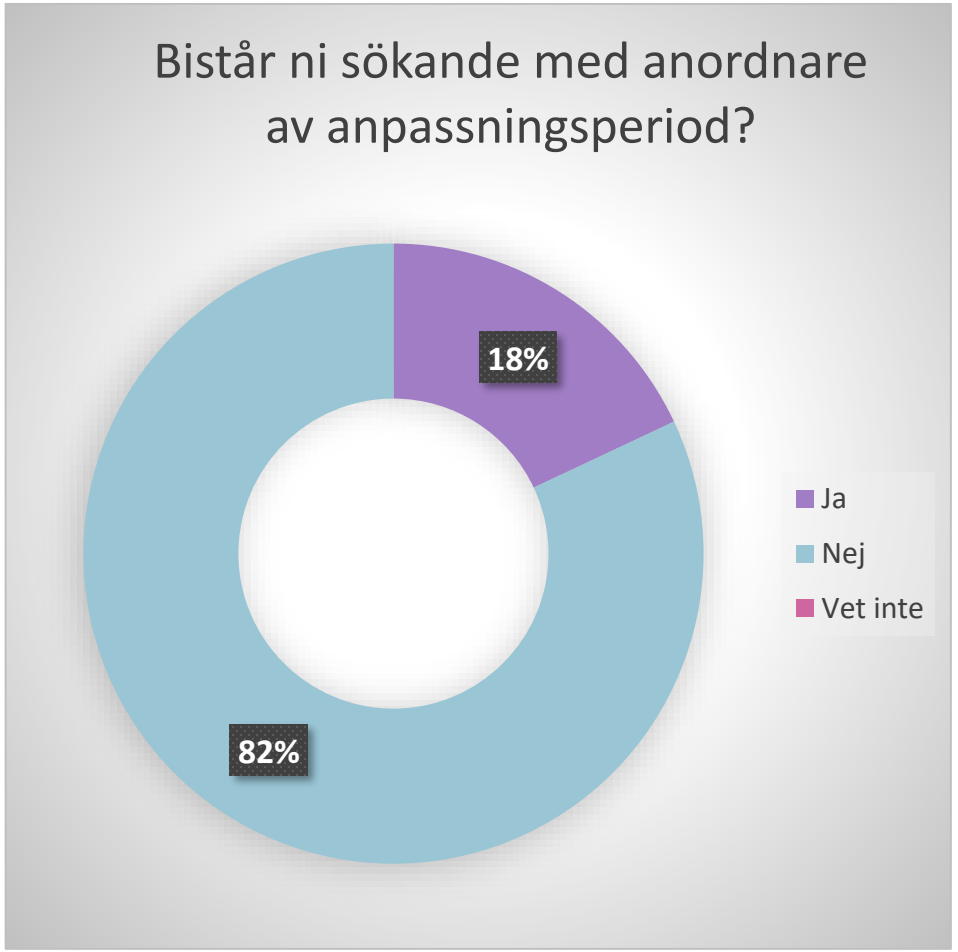

Compensation Measures, Previous Discussions (3)

Universitets- och högskolerådet

Compensation Measures, Previous Discussions (4)

Recognition of Professional Qualifications
-
compensation measures

Bernhard ZAGLMAYER (DG GROW E5)

Stockholm

9 May 2019

Universitets- och högskolerådet

Informellt utbyte!

Universitets- och högskolerådet

Universitets- och högskolerådet

Tack!

www.uhr.se